- 2) The N.E.B.'s Mobilization Campaign
(see attached Motion from National)

Please note that sufficient parking is available at the side and rear of building.

You Are The Union - Got Involved - Attend

"The Struggle Continues!"

The NEB unanimously adopted this resolution.

WHEREAS the demographics of our membership is changing and many members have not worked in a union environment;

WHEREAS the changes to the demographics of our membership has resulted in a membership with young families;

WHEREAS communicating with all of our membership is important, yet difficult, because many members do not attend general membership meetings, and work floor meetings only allow an extremely limited amount of time to speak to the members;

WHEREAS social/information sessions could encourage more members to attend union functions in general;

WHEREAS currently there is ongoing RSMC and Urban negotiations;

WHEREAS there is currently no provisions in the constitution to spend money on social events to build solidarity;

WHEREAS the National Constitution does allow for "special campaigns, approved by the National Executive Board";

BE IT RESOLVED that locals be authorized to spend money "Mobilization Solidarity Barbeques" which would encourage locals to have family friendly (no alcohol) BBQ's to offer members a social setting for discussion of postal issues;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that locals would have to pass a local motion for the spending of local funds, and that the motion be provided to the National Director for final approval;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the other campaigns and petitions of the union (postal banking, greening of PO, Delivering Community Power, including negotiations, be communicated to members and family members, with material to be provided by the National Office;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that this campaign would have life until the end of the Urban and RSMC negotiations.
